

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

European Union Center & Jean Monnet Chair

SUMMARY PROGRAM

BARCELONA, a Catalan, Spanish, Mediterranean, European and Global City

Barcelona, Spain, June 24-July 22, 2018

A summer research and study abroad program of the Department of International Studies, the European Union Center, and the Jean Monnet Chair of European Integration, at the University of Miami

June 24. Sunday. Arrival.

June 25. Monday, 9.30am. Initial meeting. Opening and general lecture: "Spain. History. Place in the World".

June 26. Tuesday, 9.30am. The general context. Guest lecture by Francesc Granell, School of Economics: "Spain, Catalonia and Barcelona in the World Economy".
8pm. Welcoming dinner.

June 27. Wednesday, 9.30am. Continuation general lecture: "Spain, Catalonia, Mediterranean, Barcelona".

June 28. Thursday. Special day centered on the figure of the universal genius: Antoni Gaudí.
10am. Departure to Colonia Güell.
11am. Visit to Colonia Güell (Village and Gaudí Crypt World Heritage Site).
2pm. Lunch.
4.30pm. Visit to the industrial historical site.
7.30pm. International opening of the new headquarters of The Gaudí Research Institute and the Antoni Gaudí Chair of the University of Barcelona.
10pm. Return to Barcelona.

June 29. Friday. Special day. Catalan History: the Roman background and legacy.
8.15am. Start for the day trip to Tarragona by bus.
7pm. Return by train in Barcelona.

June 30. Saturday, 11am. Catalan art: visit to National Museum of Art of Catalonia.

July 1. Sunday, Free day.

July 2. Monday. Special day: Barcelona history.
10am. Visit to the Cathedral of Barcelona.
11am. Visit to the Diocesan Museum of Barcelona and Gaudí Exhibition Centre.
1pm. Lunch
3pm. Visit to the historic medieval neighborhoods (Gothic, Jewish and Ribera).

July 3. Tuesday, 9.30am-12m. Visit to Delegation of the European Union. Talk by Ferran Tarradellas, Head of Delegation in Catalonia and Balearic Islands.
4pm. Visit to the Bellesguard Tower by Gaudí.

July 4. Wednesday, 9.30am. Guest lecture by Jordi Hereu, Former Mayor of Barcelona: "Barcelona Government Structure".
4pm. Guided Visit to La Sagrada Família by Gaudí.

July 5. Thursday, 3pm. Visit to the historic building of the University of Barcelona.

July 6. Friday, 9.30am. Barcelona: a Mediterranean capital. European Institute of the Mediterranean. Guest lecture by Roger Albinyana: "Barcelona, Spain and the Mediterranean".

July 7. Saturday. Special day: Barcelona history and Art.

11am. Visit to the Museum of History of the city of Barcelona (MHUBA).

1pm. Lunch.

3pm. Walking tour on Las Ramblas.

July 8. Sunday. Special day: Catalonia and Barcelona governments.

10-11am. Visit to the Palace of the Generalitat de Catalunya.

11-12m. Visit to the City Council of Barcelona.

July 9. Monday, 10am. Guest lecture by Ramon Baiget Viale de Montebello, representative of Hispanic Society of America: "Catalonia in the World".

July 10. Tuesday, 10am. Visit the Olympic Ring (Montjuïc Mountain).

12m. Lunch.

2pm. Visit to the CaixaForum (Modernist building).

July 11. Wednesday, 9.30-11am. Guest lecture by Manuel Cienfuegos, University Pompeu Fabra, School of Law: "The EU international relations".

4pm. Visit the Science Museum of Barcelona (CosmoCaixa).

July 12. Thursday, 9.30-11am. Guest lecture by Patricia García Durán, University of Barcelona, School of Economics, "The economics of the European Union".

July 13. Friday. Special day: Girona History and Art. 8.30am. Start at Residency for the day trip to Girona and then Calella.

7pm. Arrival at residency.

July 14. Saturday, 11am. Visit to the Museum of the History of Catalonia.

July 15. Sunday. Free.

July 16. Monday, 9.30am. Guest lecture by José María de Dios Marcer, Director of European Studies Institute, Autonomous University of Barcelona, Bellaterra.

4pm. Visit to the Ciutadella Park.

5.45pm. Visit to the Parliament of Catalonia.

July 17. Tuesday, 9.30/10am. Visit to the Park Güell by Gaudí.

July 18. Wednesday. Special day: the maritime coast of Barcelona.

10am. Departure to Sitges.

11am. Visit Güell Cellars (Gaudí Garraf).

1pm. Visit Sitges.

5pm. Return to Barcelona.

July 19. Thursday, 9.30am. Guest lecture by Esther Arroyo, UB School of Law. EU Private Law.

12.30m. Reception at the USA Consulate. Saul Mercado. Lecture Briefing.

July 20. Friday, 11.30am. Briefing at Barcelona Harbor. World Trade Center. Boat visit.

2pm. Visit to the historic Barcelona Swim Club. Lunch and beach activities.

July 21. Saturday, 11am. Visit to Casa Milà by Gaudí (popularly La Pedrera).

8pm. Closing with special dinner at Casa Milà: "Creative cuisine made in Ferran Adrià and The Gaudí Research Institute".

July 22. Sunday. Leaving.

Director: Joaquín Roy, Jean Monnet Chair "ad personam" & Director European Union Center of Excellence · University of Miami · 1300 Campo Sano Building, 220C · Coral Gables, FL 33146 · P: 305-284-3266 · Cell: 305-505-6045 · Spain Phone: + (34) 93-4390513 · Spain Cell: + (34) 689-495171 · Skype: baltimore500
j.roy@miami.edu · <http://www.as.miami.edu/eucenter>

Headquarters (accommodation, lectures): University Residence Josep Manyanet
Entença Street, 307-309 · 08029 Barcelona (Spain) · ☎ + 0034 93 363 12 90 residencia@manyanet.org · <https://www.residencia-manyanet.org/home>

UNIVERSITAT DE
BARCELONA

Càtedra Antoni Gaudí

Main Partner

The Gaudí
Research Institute®